

1. General Information.

For you Safety, PPE must be worn at all times during assembly and dismantling, always ensure this operation is carried out with 2 persons.
Following the assembly instructions.

To Dismantle: open door. Lift Base and secure using the safety chain. Lower the roof. From inside unit, pull back left corner towards you, and concertina other 2 sides. Push the door to the base and lower unit onto the skids.

Bottled Gas Storage Safety Precautions

1. Care should in the positioning of the cage not to hinder or endanger the means of escape.
2. The storage area should be at least 1m from the site boundary, building etc. Unless a fire wall is provided.
3. No opening into the buildings, cellars or pits should be within 2m of the LPG storage area.
4. No flammable liquids, combustible, corrosive or oxidising material should be stored within 3m of an LPG store
Compressed oxygen must be kept 10m away from all flammable gases; these include propane, butane and dissolved acetylene
5. The area should be kept clear of weeds and rubbish.
6. The cage must be locked to prevent tampering and vandalism.
7. The same restrictions apply to empty cylinders as to full ones.
8. There should be no parking within 1m of this cage.

Should this cage be used inside a building (Shops etc) the following restrictions apply.

1. No more than 5 bottles should be allowed on display with the total contents no more than 70kg.
2. Bottles larger 20kg should not be stored inside e.g. 47kg.

Marwood Group Ltd
72 Roding Road
London Industrial Park
Beckton
London
E6 6JG

MG480/0709